MEMBERS.

THE Members of the Eisteddfod shall consist of ordinary members, life members, honorary members, and delegated members.

Ordinary Members.—The ordinary members to be composed of three classes—those paying 21s. per annum to be members of the first class; those paying 15s. per annum to be members of the second class; and those paying 10s. or 5s. per annum to be members of the third class.

The several classes of Members to be entitled to vote at all general meetings of members, and also, excepting those paying 5s. per annum only, to a copy of the Eisteddfod publications, together with a course ticket. The members of the first class to a first-class course ticket; those of the second class to a second-class course ticket; those of the third class paying 10s. per annum to a third-class course ticket; and those of the third class paying 5s. per annum to a third-class course ticket of admission to the morning meetings only.

A "course ticket" to entitle the member to admission (according to the class represented by the ticket) to all the meetings of the Eisteddfod, including the evening concerts. No subscription entitles to more than two Tickets.

Life Members.—Any person who may pay a subscription equal to ten annual subscriptions shall be a life member, and be entitled to the same advantages as an ordinary member of the class represented by the tickets.

Honorary Members.—The Council may elect as honorary members such persons as may have distinguished themselves in literature, science, or art, or who in other ways may have rendered valuable service to the Principality.

Delegated Members.—Literary or other associations may appoint delegates who shall be considered as members of the Eisteddfod. The condition of membership in the case of such delegates to be the same as that applicable to ordinary members.

SOCIAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT.

Meetings will be held every morning during the Eisteddfod, at which papers upon various interesting subjects connected with the social and intellectual advancement of Wales will be read by persons of distinction. This important department will be presided over by HUGH OWEN, Esq., of London.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

GRAND CONCERTS will be held each evening of the Eisteddfod, and the morning of the fourth day will be devoted to the performance of HANDEL's Oratorio, The Messiah. Among the Artistes already engaged, are the following:—Miss Edith Wynne, Miss Watts, Mr. W. H. Cummings, Mr. Lewis Thomas, Mr. John Thomas, (Pencerdd Gwalia), Mr. E. W. Thomas, Mr. W. I. Argent, Mr. T. Gruffydd (Cerddor y Dwyrain), Mr. S. Allen Jones, &c. The Choruses will be rendered by a powerful Choir, under the conductorship of Mr. B. M. Williams. The control of this department is entrusted to Mr. John Owen (Owain Alaw), and will include features of great interest and attraction.

EXHIBITION

OF THE ARTS, INDUSTRY, AND PRODUCTS OF WALES.

Extensive preparations are being made for an Exhibition to be open in connection with the Eisteddfod, to comprise Works of Art, in Water Colour, Oil, Sculpture; Geological, Mineral, and Botanical Specimens; Carving, Modelling, and Graining; Iron, Woollen, and other Manufactures; Objects of Antiquity and Curiosity, &c. &c.

Medals of Honour and Certificates of Merit will be awarded to Distinguished Exhibitors in the various departments.

Some valuable contributions have already been promised, and the Committee earnestly invite the support and co-operation of all those who are desirous of promoting the well-being and progress of the Principality.

Articles for the Exhibition must be at Ruthin by the 21st of July, directed to the Local Secretary.

Those who require much space are requested to make an early application to the Secretary, stating particulars, so that the necessary arrangements may be made.

GENERAL RULES.

THE Adjudicators, Members of the Council, the Treasurers, and Secretaries, are not allowed to compete for any of the Prizes.

The Adjudicators are empowered to withhold, award in part, or divide any or all of the prizes, if they in their judgment shall deem such a course necessary.

The chief prizes in Prose, Poetry, Music, &c., to be awarded only in cases of distinguished merit.

All prize Compositions to be the property of "Yr Eisteddfod," for publication under the direction of the Council.

All the Literary Compositions to be sent carriage free to the General Secretary, Mr. J. Prydderch Williams, Rhyl, on or before July 1st, 1868, (unless otherwise directed).

Competitors are respectfully requested to write their Compositions legibly, number the folios, and, if practicable, append an index. All Compositions to be written separately.

Each successful Competitor must appear personally, or by a representative, to claim the prize when awarded at the Eisteddfod, or send his name, a fortnight before the date of holding the Eisteddfod, under seal, to the General Secretary—otherwise the Council may withhold the prize.

It is desired that all compositions be written in a handwriting unknown to the Adjudicators.

The Names of all Competitors in singing and musical performances to be sent to the General Secretary, on or before the 1st of July.

This List will be forwarded by the Secretaries on the receipt of one postage stamp.

LOCAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.

As the expense of organizing and conducting the various departments of the Eisteddfod must necessarily be heavy, it is earnestly hoped that the friends of Wales throughout the Principality will assist with their contributions. The following sums have already been promised.
